

Yin-Yong Lim

About me

I'm a graphic design student, 23-years-old from Amsterdam and currently studying at AKV st. Joost in Breda. With 7 years of learning experience I already have the capability of creating creative work. I am ambitious and driven in the discipline of graphic design.

Besides my passion for graphic design my passion also lies with videogames. Playing Mario Kart on my brother's Nintendo 64 as my first game. As a game / technology enthusiast I am interested in learning new skills to further develop my skills and discipline.

Interests

(graphic) design, new concepts, interaction, making gifs, games (gaming in general), gunpla.
